Famed Sea Raider Blown Up Upon Orders of Adolf Hitler

BUENOS AIRES, Dec. 18 - A high Argentine official said the 1,-039 crewmen of the sunken German pocket-battleship Graf Spee, who arrived here today, would be interned.

Officers of the 10,000 ton battleship, now a mass of tangled wreck-age in the Plate river, the official said, probably will be released on their personal pledge not to participate in the European war.

The official recalled a similar case in 1914 when Argentina interned the crew of a German ship but released the officers. A German embassy spokesman announced "more than 1,000" mem-bers of the Graf Spee's crew had arrived in port. Previous reports indicated 600 had come to Buenos Aires but the spokesman said several hundred others who were placed aboard the German tanker Tacoma

A PLACE FOR NON-PARTISANSHIP

Party politics aside, President Roosevelt and Sen. Taft have opened discussion of a wholly non-partisan issue by tackling the question of a balanced budget.

It does not matter that they have spoken as partisans, because under the circumstances that can't be helped. Sen. Taft is entirely correct when he insists the budget must be balanced, and the President is speaking from experience when he says he doesn't know where to make reductions.

The President's dilemma was stated clearly by one of the speakers at the annual convention of the Association of Life Insurance Presidents last Thursday. M. Albert Linton, president of Provident Mutual Life Salem, have been licensed to wed. Insurance Co., said:

Americans are resentful of the fact the war has penetrated their zone of security, but that is a comparatively remote feeling. For the most part they are unashamedly interested in following a saga of the sea in the making. If there must be war, it should be more like this, a conflict of skill and decision reaching a definitive result quickly, with the victor and the vanquished admitting mutual admiration for the bravery of their opponent.

NOTE ON THE PASSING OF TIME

Miss Dorothy Lamour of Hollywood, the radio and, vicariously, the south sea islands, is reported to have won an argument with a movie studio about her hair. She did not claim the right to cut her hair if she chose. She did not say anything about emancipation of women from whatever it is about long hair that they once said "enslaved" them.

Miss Lamour's hair falls to her waist. She insisted it was going to stay that way and made the studio take her for a bobbed hair role long hair and This is 1939, not 1919. The tide of controversy has reversed itself. A woman has a perfect right to long hair if she refuses to be trammeled by the custom of wearing it short.

A PLACE FOR NON-PARTISANSHIP

Party politics aside, President Roosevelt and Sen. Taft have opened discussion of a wholly non-partisan issue by tackling the question of a balanced budget. It does not matter that they have spoken as partisans, because under the circumstances that can't be helped. Sen. Taft is entirely correct when he insists the budget must be balanced, and the President is speaking from experience when he says he doesn't know where to make reductions.

The President's dilemma was stated clearly by one of the speakers at the annual convention of the Association of Life Insurance Presidents last Thursday. M. Albert Linton, president of Provident Mutual Life Salem, have been licensed to wed.

"Everyone with a sense of reality knows that the Kopp's grocery. colution of this problem will not be easy. THE CAMERA COULD LIE

Photographs of a damaged warship lying in the harbor of Montivedeo may not have been of the Admiral Graf Spee, or if they were may have been doctored to show damage that wasn't done, but it's not probable. South American newspapermen sendinformation, not fairy stories.

The matter of accuracy is unimportant except as it bears on popular impressions of what's happening in the war. Germans were told their battleship had knocked the spots off its attackers, steamed placidly had whaled the tar out of the formidable Spee with of Beloit and Leo Holloway, of Columbiana, were little inconvenience to themselves and the south Atlantic now was safe for John Bull-hip, hip, hip,

Americans are resentful of the fact the war has penetrated their zone of security, but that is a comparatively remote feeling. For the most part they are unashamedly interested in following a saga of the sea in the making. If there must be war, it should be more like this, a conflict of skill and decision reaching a definitive result quickly, with the victor and the vanquished admitting mutual admiration for the bravery of their opponent.

NOTE ON THE PASSING OF TIME

Miss Dorothy Lamour of Hollywood, the radio and, vicariously, the south sea islands, is reported to have won an argument with a movie studio about her hair. She did not claim the right to cut her hair if she chose. She did not say anything about emancipation of women from whatever it is about long hair that they once said "enslaved" them;

Miss Lamour's hair falls to her waist. She insisted it was going to stay that way and made the studio take her for a bobbed hair role long hair and This is 1939, not 1919. Modern Housing Dooms New York's Chinatown

Intersectional Angle Is Important In This Week's Program

BY BILL WHITE NEW YORK, Dec. 18—The major college hoop squads don't seem to give a whoop about playing the ome folks this week.

In a program that boasts some 75 headline clashes, the intersectional aspect is the important one. And there'll have to be some crazy cage calisthenics to match the contests here Saturday involving two metropolitan teams and the Oklahoma Aggies and the Oregon university Webfeet.

Metropolitan basketball writers still are trying to find adjectives to describe he thrills of the first Madison Square Garden double header in which Long Island university ran up its 40th straight in an overtime, 56-55 spellbi-nder over Oregon, and the Oklahoma Aggies showed a world of precision-built power in overwhelming C. C. N. Y., 36-24.

Another Twin Bill Tonight at Philadelphia, the Oklahoma Aggies and Oregon play LaSalle and Temple respectively. On Saturday, Phillp fans will see Santa Clara, Northern California conference kingpin, play La Salle and Oklahoma of the big six meet

Temple Baltimore has a pair of double bills Tuesday and Saturday. Tuesday, Oregon plays Baltimore U. and the Oklahoma Aggies tangle with Duke.

At nearby White Plains Monday, Michigan meets Connecticut U. on the same bill with Rhode Island and Dayton. Most important of the metropolitan tussles pits the Long Islanders against Dayton Tuesday. In the middle west, Princeton takes on Illinois and Northwestern before heading east to engage Syracuse. Pittsburgh has a date with Indiana tonight. While Carnegie Tech plays Loyola at Chicago tonight and Bradley Tech in Peoria tomorrow.

resounding "flop" in 1939 sports, the country's sports editors decided today, was a toss-up between the collapse of Johnny Vander-Meer's double-no hit pitching arm and the gridiron woes of Northwestern's Wildcats.

Voting in the Associated Press' ninth annual poll on the year's biggest disappointment, the experts came up with a tie in try-ing to discover which took the biggest nose dive. Vander Meer was voted the No. 1 upset on 11 of the 74 ballots and Northwestern drew the top spot on nine, but on a point basis—three for a first place selection, two for second and one for third-they were deadlocked at 37 points.

Vander Meer, after shattering all pitching records in 1938 with two straight no-run, no-hit performances as a rookie with the Cincinnati Reds and winding up with 15 freshman victories, ran into a combination of the sophomore jinx and an assortment of ailments this year. He finished the season with only five victories and nine setbacks and tossed only eight

BY BILL WHITE NEW YORK, Dec. 18—The major college hoop squads don't seem to give a whoop about playing the home folks this week.

In a program that boasts some 75 headline clashes, the intersectional aspect is the important one. And there'll have to be some crazy cage calisthenics to match the contests here Saturday involving two metropolitan teams and the Okla-homa Aggies and the Oregon uni-versity Webfeet.

Metropolitan basketball writers still are trying to find adjectives to describethe thrills of the first Madison Square Garden double header in which Long Island uni-versity ran up its 40th straight in an overtime, 56-55 spellbi-nder over Oregon, and the Oklahoma Aggles showed a world of precision-built power in overwhelming C. C. N. Y. 36-24.

Another Twin Bill Tonight at Philadelphia, the Oklahoma Aggies and Oregon play LaSalle and Temple respectively. On Saturday, Phillp fans will see Santa Clara, Northern California conference kingpin, play La Salle and Oklahoma of the big six meet

Baltimore has a pair of double bills Tuesday and Saturday. Tuesday, Oregon plays Baltimore U., and the Oklahoma Aggies tangle At nearby White Plains Monday

At nearby White Plains Monday, Michigan meets Connecticut U. on the same bill with Rhode Island and Dayton. Most important of the metropolitan tussles pits the Long Islanders against Dayton Tuesday. In the middle west, Princeton takes on Illinois and Northwestern — before heading east to engage before heading east to engage Syracuse. Pittsburgh has a date with Indiana tonight. While negie Tech plays Loyola at Chicago onight and Bradley Tech in Pe-
